Understanding Egyptian Gods

Saturday 15th July 2017

10.15 – 15.30

This day workshop will consider the key pantheon of Egypt, the Gods, Goddesses and holy families, their symbols and attributes.

We will examine key myths, such as the myths of Isis and Osiris and the Creation, as well as important sanctuary sites on the Nile.

We will also consider ideas about the afterlife and morality, and examine some ancient Egyptian Liturgy.

Speaker: Frances Eley is a lecturer in Classics and Archaeology for the Open University, with particular research interests in ancient Mystery Religions.
